History of Psychology

Cathy Faye The University of Akron

The American Journal of Psychology (ISSN print 0002-9556, electronic 1939-2898) was founded in the interest of general experimental psychology and is devoted to the basic science of the mind. The Journal publishes reports of original experimental research, presentations of theory, theoretical and experimental analyses, historical commentaries, and reviews of books in the area. Articles should be submitted electronically to the AJP online manuscript submission system. This secure, personalized resource will allow you to track your manuscript through each step of the review and acceptance process: <http://ojs.press.illinois.edu/index.php/ajp/user/register>. Or if you already have an Upload account: <http://ojs.press.illinois.edu/index.php/ajp/login>. Books intended for review and proposals for book reviews should be sent to Dominic W. Massaro, Book Review Editor, massaro@ucsc.edu. For further information on the policies and domain of the Journal, authors should refer to the Editorial Statement on the journal’s Website, <http://www.press.uillinois.edu/journals/ajp.html>. More specific submission instructions may be found there and on the inside back cover of this issue.
