Manuscripts of research and theory articles should be submitted as follows:

Articles should be submitted electronically to the AJP online manuscript submission system. This secure, personalized resource will allow you to track your manuscript through each step of the review and acceptance process. To begin, click on the link below to set up your personal account and upload your submission. Your transmitted material will be reviewed as soon as possible.

<http://ojs.press.illinois.edu/index.php/ajp/user/register>

Or if you already have an Upload account:

<http://ojs.press.illinois.edu/index.php/ajp/login>

Contributors are asked to follow the style in the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association, 6th ed., 2009, and to consult Appendix A, Checklist for Manuscript Submission, in the Manual as a guide.

Everything should be double-spaced—abstract, text, references, notes, captions.

Please include all statistical indices, descriptive and inferential, required for evaluation of your experimental findings.

The abstract should not exceed 250 words.

Special mathematical symbols and abbreviations should be identified.

All elements in a figure should be large enough to be readable when the drawing is reduced to fit the maximum width of 11 cm. Figures should be submitted as .TIF or .JPG files with a resolution of at least 300 dpi.

All titles in the reference list should be spelled out rather than abbreviated.

References cited in the text should agree with those in the reference list.

A copy of the letter of permission for the use of previously published material (e.g., long extracts and reproductions of figures) should be included.

The submitted manuscript should not be under concurrent review elsewhere.

Books intended for review and proposals for book reviews should be sent to:
