HISTORY OF PHILOSOPHY QUARTERLY

Published on behalf of
North American Philosophical Publications

HPQ specializes in papers that cultivate philosophical history with a strong interaction between contemporary and historical concerns.

Contributors regard work in the history of philosophy and in philosophy itself as parts of a seamless whole—historical inquiry and ongoing philosophical concern.

The journal favors the approach to philosophical history that refuses to see the boundary between philosophy and its history as an impassable barrier.

MORMON STUDIES REVIEW

Issued Annually (Spring)

The Mormon Studies Review (Review) tracks the vibrant, varied, and international academic engagement with Mormon institutions, lives, ideas, texts, and stories.

Edited by:
Quincy D. Newell
Benjamin E. Park

It chronicles and assesses the developing field of Mormon studies with review essays, book reviews, and roundtable discussions related to the academic study of Mormonism.

The Review offers scholars and interested non-specialists a one-stop source for discussions of current scholarship on Mormonism.
