Immigrant Identity and the Politics of Citizenship

Edited by John J. Bukowczyk

The next volume in the Common Threads series, Immigrant Identity and the Politics of Citizenship, is a joint effort with the Journal of American Ethnic History. Editor John Bukowczyk selected 14 articles that discuss the divisions and hierarchies that immigrants coming to the United States confront and how these immigrants shape and are shaped by the social and cultural worlds they enter here. Drawing on scholarship about ethnic groups from around the globe, the chapters illuminate the often fraught journey many migrants undertake from mistrusted "Other" to sometimes-welcomed citizen.

PAQ

Public Affairs Quarterly

Edited by Rebecca Kukla

Public Affairs Quarterly (PAQ) is devoted to current issues in social and political philosophy. It specializes in contributions that examine matters on the current agenda of public policy in light of philosophical reflections and assessments. PAQ seeks to promote the understanding of issues of public policy by publishing essays that bring philosophical depth and sophistication to matters on the agenda of public debate that would otherwise be left to the tender mercies of political rhetoric and journalistic oversimplification.

Subscriptions start at $60.00 for individuals and $343.00 for institutions.

PAQ is published by the University of Illinois Press on behalf of North American Philosophical Publications.

A bold challenge to human cruelty and indifference

“At a time when the necessity for animal experimentation has been called more and more into doubt, the Linzeys show how deep-seated research paradigms, institutional inertia, and money from the biomedical industry can persuade an esteemed university like Oxford to press on with practices that to any dispassionate observer must seem barbaric. Their analysis is backed up by an impressive set of essays by philosophers, lawyers, and scientists.”

—J. M. Coetzee, Nobel Laureate for Literature

“Essential reading. A comprehensive ethical analysis of animal experiments.”

—Sir David Madden, Senior Member, St Antony's College, Oxford

MANUSCRIPTS

The American Philosophical Quarterly welcomes original articles that advance our understanding of philosophical problems or positions, on any aspect of philosophy apart from history. Articles are subject to blind review and evaluated based on originality, rigor, depth of insight, mastery of relevant literature, and lucidity of style. The journal does not publish news items, book reviews, critical notices, or "discussion notes" (short or long). The journal does not consider articles under consideration elsewhere.

Contributions should be 2,000 to 7,000 words in length and formatted as a Word document (or a file type compatible with MS Word). All files should be double spaced throughout. Endnotes are preferred to footnotes and should be used sparingly. In order to ensure anonymity of submissions, authors using Word are advised to go to "File . . . HISTORY OF PHILOSOPHY QUARTERLY

The History of Philosophy Quarterly is a scholarly journal that interests itself particularly in papers which cultivate philosophical history in the spirit of philosophia perennis. Ideally, its contributions regard work in the history of philosophy and in philosophy itself as parts of a seamless whole, treating the work of past philosophers not only in terms of historical inquiry, but also as a means of dealing with issues of ongoing philosophical concern. The journal favors that approach to philosophical history, increasingly prominent in recent years, which refuses to see the boundary between philosophy and its history as an impassible barrier, but regards historical studies as a way of dealing with problems of continued interest and importance. The whole of each issue is devoted entirely to articles. (There are no book reviews and no discussion notes, but general surveys on particular topics may be published from time to time.)

Subscriptions should be sent to: Journals Department, University of Illinois Press, 1325 S. Oak St., Champaign, IL 61820; phone: 866-244-0626 (toll free), or 217-244-0626; fax: 217-244-8082; e-mail: journals@uillinois.edu; www.press.uillinois.edu. Rates are $60 for individuals or $343 (print only or electronic only) or $385 (print and electronic) for institutions.
