Ethnomusicology

Official Journal of the Society for Ethnomusicology

The journal's scholarly articles represent current theoretical perspectives and research in ethnomusicology and related fields, expanding the discipline in the U.S. and beyond.

Edited by:
Katherine M. Brucher

Ethnomusicology is aimed at a diverse audience of musicologists, anthropologists, folklorists, cultural studies scholars, musicians, and others.

This inclusive journal also features book, recording, film, video, and multimedia reviews.
Jazz and Culture was founded on the principle that both scholars and musicians offer invaluable contributions.

The journal juxtaposes groundbreaking work by researchers alongside oral histories and articles written by master artists in the field.

All methodological approaches are welcome, including ethnomusicology, music theory, and critical and cultural studies.

JAE is a highly respected interdisciplinary journal that focuses on clarifying the issues of aesthetic education understood in its most extensive meaning.

JAE welcomes articles on philosophical aesthetics and education devoted to:
1) problem areas in education critical to arts and humanities at all institutional levels;
2) an understanding of the aesthetic import of the new communications media and environmental aesthetics; and
3) an understanding of the aesthetic character of humanistic disciplines.
