Italian American Review
John D. Calandra Italian American Institute

Published by the University of Illinois Press, the Italian American Review (IAR), a bi-annual, peer-reviewed journal of the John D. Calandra Italian American Institute, publishes scholarly articles about the history and culture of Italian Americans, as well as other aspects of the Italian diaspora. The journal embraces a wide range of professional concerns and theoretical orientations in the social sciences and in cultural studies.

The full text of IAR issues from Volume 1 (2011) to the present is available online through EBSCO's “America: History and Life” database (http://www.ebscohost.com/public/americahistory-and-life) and the Scholarly Publishing Collective (https://scholarlypublishingcollective.org/uip/iar). IAR is listed in the Modern Language Association Directory of Periodicals. IAR is classified by the Italian National Agency for the Evaluation of Universities and Research Institutes (ANVUR) as a Scientific Journal in Area 10 (Antiquities, Philology, Literary Studies, and Art History), Area 11 (History, Philosophy, and Pedagogy), and Area 14 (Political and Social Sciences). It additionally enjoys ANVUR's highest "class A" ranking for area studies 11/A5 (Cultural, Ethnic, and Anthropological Studies) and 14/C2 (Sociology).
