Jazz and Culture is a biannual publication devoted to publishing cutting-edge research on jazz from multiple perspectives. Founded on the principle that both scholars and musicians offer invaluable contributions, the journal juxtaposes groundbreaking work by researchers alongside oral histories and articles written by master artists in the field. All methodological approaches are welcome, including ethnomusicology, music theory, and critical and cultural studies. The journal particularly encourages work relating to jazz’s international scope.

Manuscript Submissions
In general, Jazz and Culture will follow the Chicago Manual of Style, 17th edition, for all style decisions. Citations will be formatted as endnotes using the Notes-Bibliography style, given in the manual. Manuscripts should be prepared as Microsoft Word files, double spaced in 12 point font. Please see the full Jazz and Culture manuscript preparation guidelines here: https://www.press.uillinois.edu/journals/id=jac

Article submissions may be made by sending your article via email to pittjazz@pitt.edu. Please include the subject line: “Jazz and Culture: Article Submission.”

All submissions should include the following as separate files:
• Article manuscript, with no identifying information regarding the author.
• Separate information sheet including (1) Author’s name, contact information, and mailing address (2) Article Title and 250 word abstract (3) Author bio of 100 words or less, beginning with institutional affiliation.

Any questions may also be emailed to pittjazz@pitt.edu.
