SUBMISSION GUIDELINES FOR THE JOURNAL OF AESTHETIC EDUCATION

EDITOR

Pradeep A. Dhillon, Department of Educational Policy Studies, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign.

FOUNDING EDITOR

Ralph Smith, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign.

The major purpose of the Journal of Aesthetic Education is to clarify the issues of aesthetic education understood in its most extensive meaning, including not only the problems of formal instruction in the arts and the humanities at all institutional levels but also the aesthetic problems of the larger society. The Journal thus welcomes articles devoted to the aesthetic interest and public policy, including problems of cultural administration and the character of cultural services; to problem areas critical to arts and humanities instruction at all institutional levels, including higher education (literature, film, music, the visual and performing arts); to an understanding of the aesthetic import of the new communications media and environmental arts; and to an understanding of the aesthetic character of humanistic disciplines and the art of teaching and learning.

The Journal of Aesthetic Education can now be accessed online through Project Muse, JSTOR, and the University of Illinois Press at <http://www.press.uillinois.edu/journals/jae.html>.

Indexed or abstracted in Art Bibliographies Modern, Art Full Text, Arts and Humanities Citation Index, Book Review Index, Children's Book Review Index, Contents Pages in Education, Current Contents: Arts and Humanities, Education Full Text, ERIC, Film Literature Index, Index to Book Reviews in the Humanities, International Bibliography of Periodical Literature on the Humanities & Social Sciences, International Bibliography of Book Reviews on Scholarly Literature on the Humanities & Social Sciences, ISI Alerting Service, MLA International Bibliography, Music Article Guide, OCLC Article First, Philosopher's Index, ProQuest 5000, PsycINFO, RILM, SCOPUS, Social Science Citation Index, Social SciSearch, and Wilson OmniFile Full Text Mega Edition.

The Journal of Aesthetic Education is a peer-reviewed journal that seeks to clarify the issues of aesthetic education understood in its most extensive meaning and explicating philosophical and theoretical approaches that address and clarify these issues.

General guidelines:

- Manuscripts should be submitted in an electronic format, preferably in a Word file, to jae@uillinois.edu. We cannot accept a PDF file.
- Include a 200-word abstract and a bio with your submission.
- Authors should follow Chicago Manual of Style (17th edition) in preparing their manuscripts, and endnotes should be numbered within the text in accordance with the format given in the Chicago Manual of Style. Manuscripts that are not appropriately formatted will be returned for resubmission.
- No editorial consideration will be given to manuscripts that have been published elsewhere or are under consideration for publication elsewhere.
- The Editor usually assigns book reviews for the Journal. If any author is willing to review a book for the Journal, please send an e-mail to jae@uillinois.edu.

Guidelines for copyrighted images and text:

- It is the responsibility of the author to obtain authorization from copyright holders for images and text reprinted in the Journal of Aesthetic Education. Electronic and print rights are required. All illustrations are reproduced in black-and-white.
- The author is required to submit the original permission letters for all copyrighted material used in his/her manuscripts. It is encouraged that the authors submit images separately from their contributions, with call-outs inserted in the text where the images would appear (for example, <Insert Figure 1 near here>). Images should be formatted as 300 dpi grayscale TIFFs, and line art should have a resolution of 1200 dpi or better.
- The author should send the permission letter(s) to the following address:

Journal of Aesthetic Education
University of Illinois Press
