SUMMER 2015

VOLUME 34, NUMBER 4

JOURNAL OF AMERICAN ETHNIC HISTORY

The focus of the Journal of American Ethnic History is the history of immigration, ethnicity, and race throughout North America. Scholars are invited to submit manuscripts on the process of migration (including the old world experience as it relates to migration and group life), adjustment and assimilation, group relations, mobility, politics, culture, group identity, or other topics that illuminate the North American immigrant, ethnic, and racial experience.

Manuscript, written in English, (to 35 pages in total length) should be in triplicate (single-sided, with text and notes double-spaced and notes and tables on separate sheets). Follow the Chicago Manual of Style, 16th ed. (University of Chicago Press), and provide CD or flash drive in MS Word 2003 or 2007 format for Windows (no electronic submissions). Since manuscripts are sent out anonymously for evaluation, the author's name and affiliation should appear only on a separate cover sheet. Please also include separate attachment with brief biographical note including academic affiliation, if any, and major publications. Please address all manuscript submissions to John J. Bukowczyk, Department of History, 3094 Faculty/Administration Bldg., Wayne State University, Detroit, MI 48202 USA. Correspondence regarding book reviews should be sent to Jeff Strickland, Department of History, 427 Dickson Hall, Montclair State University, 1 Normal Ave., Montclair, NJ 07043. Authors submitting manuscripts should be sure to provide their email and mailing addresses. Please note that the journal does not publish previously published material, material under consideration elsewhere, or unsolicited book reviews, nor does it accept volunteers for book review assignments.
