IMMIGRATION AND ETHNIC HISTORY SOCIETY

PURPOSE:
The Immigration and Ethnic History Society was founded in 1965. Its mission is to promote the study of the history of immigration to North America from all parts of the world, including studies of the background of emigration in the countries of origin; to promote the study of ethnic groups in the United States, including regional groups in the United States, Native Americans, and forced immigrants; to promote understanding of the processes of acculturation and of conflict; to furnish through the Immigration and Ethnic History Newsletter information as to research, organizations, meetings, and publications in the field of immigration history; to help organize session programs at meetings of learned societies; and generally to serve the field of immigration–ethnic history with special reference to professional scholarship.
