

The Finnish Nationality Room

The Cathedral of Learning

University of Pittsburgh

When it is completed, the Finnish Nationality Room will be a full-scale replica of an early Finnish farmstead, including a tupa and all that goes in it. This room will then join the over 30 other Nationality Rooms in the Cathedral of Learning at the University of Pittsburgh. But to complete the project, we need your help!

Learn how by visiting us at www.pittsburghfinns.net or by visiting our Facebook page (pittsburghfinns). You will not want to miss this opportunity. Frank Eld, FF Lecturer of the Year, has completed a scale-model of the project, part of which is pictured here. The logs for the walls are ready to be taken from a 100-year-old house.
