SPECIAL ISSUE: SWEDISH-SPEAKING CULTURE IN FINLAND

Scott A. Mellor and Hilary Virtanen, Guest Editors

CONTENTS

141 Scott A. Mellor: Introduction

145 Susan C. Brantly: Carina Karlsson’s Märket as “Glocal” Literature

156 Benjamin Mier-Cruz: Spiderwebs of Mental Gum Arabic: The Modernist Machines of Elmer Diktonius

180 Ida Scherman: Ålanders Knowing Finnish: A Necessity or a Threat to Autonomy? The Ålandic Language Debate of 1968

214 Susann Simolin: The Phenomenon of Using Examples in Conflict/Peace Contexts: The “Åland Example” Seen through the Lens of Diffusion

241 Hasan Akintug: Åland, the Swedish People’s Party, and the European Union: The Beginning of a Complicated Relationship

266 Johannes Brusila and Kim Ramstedt: The Irony of “Drottningen av Åland”: Politics and Aesthetics in the Changing Landscape of Finland Swedish Popular Music