AJTP is a scholarly journal dedicated to the creative interchange of ideas between theologians and philosophers on some of the most critical intellectual and ethical issues of our time.

The goal of the AJTP is to promote lively conversation among theologians and philosophers by providing a forum for discussions.

Areas include:
1) the interface between theology and philosophy, and
2) the development of liberal religious thought in America.

Dialogue: A Journal of Mormon Thought is an independent quarterly established to express Mormon culture and to examine the relevance of religion to secular life.

Edited by:
Taylor Petrey

It is published by the Dialogue Foundation and edited by Latter-day Saints who wish to bring their faith into dialogue with the larger stream of world religious thought and with human experience as a whole and to foster artistic and scholarly achievement based on their cultural heritage.
The Mormon Studies Review (Review) tracks the vibrant, varied, and international academic engagement with Mormon institutions, lives, ideas, texts, and stories.

Edited by:
Quincy D. Newell
Benjamin E. Park

It chronicles and assesses the developing field of Mormon studies with review essays, book reviews, and roundtable discussions related to the academic study of Mormonism.

The Review offers scholars and interested non-specialists a one-stop source for discussions of current scholarship on Mormonism.
Utah Historical Quarterly

Published since 1928, Utah Historical Quarterly is the state’s premier history journal.

Utah Historical Quarterly (UHQ) is published on behalf of the Utah State Historical Society since 1928.

UHQ’s mission, from its earliest issues to the present, is to publish articles on all aspects of Utah history and to present Utah in the larger context of the West.

The journal is filled with articles, book reviews, and photographs, as well as field notes about documents, artifacts, historiography, oral history, and public history.
