POSTMASTER

Send change of address to the University of Illinois Press, 1325 S. Oak Street, Champaign, IL 61820-6903.

COPYRIGHT

While the journal holds the copyright on materials published in its pages, it routinely accords contributors permission to reprint in books or anthologies authored or coauthored by themselves. All other requests to reprint should be addressed to the University of Illinois Press.

MANUSCRIPTS

Public Affairs Quarterly welcomes the submission of articles in English on current issues in social and political philosophy. Only self-sufficient essays will be published, not news items, book reviews, critical responses, or “discussion notes” (short or long). All articles should be submitted in Microsoft Word format and should be double-spaced and prepared for blind review. The journal prefers manuscripts of 4,000–10,000 words in length but articles outside these limits may still be considered. All submissions that pass an initial editorial review are peer-reviewed. Public Affairs Quarterly follows the Chicago Manual of Style, 17th edition, and requires endnotes plus a bibliography. Endnotes should be used for discursive material and to expand discussions, and citations in endnotes should be short form citations that correspond to a full reference entry. Please prepare your article for anonymous review and submit it here: <http://www.press.uillinois.edu/journals/paq/paqsubmissions.html>.

POLICY

Public Affairs Quarterly (PAQ) publishes work in all areas of practically engaged normative philosophy, broadly understood to include normative work on issues of public concern in applied moral, social, political, and legal philosophy. Topics covered by the journal include subjects of long-standing debate such as abortion, capital punishment, and just war theory; more recently emerging subjects of controversy such as climate change, affirmative action, commercial surrogacy, and the treatment of non-human animals; current topics concerning racism and sexual harassment, and to technological developments such as gene editing and autonomous weapons systems. Submissions that address implications for a cluster of issues rather than focusing on a single issue are also welcome. These topics could include race, sexuality, gender, social identity, nationalism, paternalism, privacy, distributive justice, economic fairness, political inequality, and commodification.

SUBSCRIPTIONS

The journal is published four times a year, in January, April, July, and October. The subscription price for institutions in 2020 is $353 for print only or electronic only or $397 for print and electronic. For individuals, it is $60 for print only. Single issues are $90 for institutions and $40 for individuals. For postage to Canada or Mexico, add $10; for all other international mailing, add $35.
