

PUBLIC AFFAIRS QUARTERLY

POSTMASTER

Send change of address to the University of Illinois Press, 1325 S. Oak Street, Champaign, IL 61820-6903.

COPYRIGHT

While the journal holds the copyright on materials published in its pages, it routinely accords contributors permission to reprint in books or anthologies authored or coauthored by themselves. All other requests to reprint should be addressed to the University of Illinois Press.

MANUSCRIPTS

Public Affairs Quarterly welcomes the submission of articles in English on current issues in social and political philosophy. Only self-sufficient essays will be published, not news items, book reviews, critical responses, or “discussion notes” (short or long). All articles should be submitted in Microsoft Word format and should be double-spaced and prepared for blind review. The journal prefers manuscripts of 4,000–10,000 words in length but articles outside these limits may still be considered. All submissions that pass an initial editorial review are peer-reviewed. Public Affairs Quarterly follows the Chicago Manual of Style, 17th edition, and requires endnotes plus a bibliography. Endnotes should be used for discursive material and to expand discussions, and citations in endnotes should be short form citations that correspond to a full reference entry. Please prepare your article for anonymous review and submit it here: <http://www.press.uillinois.edu/journals/paq/paqsubmissions.html>.

AMERICAN PHILOSOPHICAL QUARTERLY

Over the years, the APQ has established itself as one of the principal English vehicles for the publication of scholarly work in philosophy. The whole of each issue—printed in a large-page, double-column format—is devoted to articles; there are no discussion pieces, book reviews, or critical notices. The editorial policy is to publish substantial work of high quality, regardless of the school of thought from which it derives.

The journal is published four times a year, in January, April, July, and October. Subscriptions should be sent to: Journals Dept., University of Illinois Press, 1325 S. Oak St., Champaign, IL 61820; phone: 217-244-0626; fax: 217-244-8082; e-mail: journals@uillinois.edu; www.press.uillinois.edu ($60 for individuals; $346 for print or electronic only or $389 for print and electronic for institutions). All other correspondence, or submissions for possible publication, should be addressed to:

HISTORY OF PHILOSOPHY QUARTERLY

The History of Philosophy Quarterly is a scholarly journal that aims to cultivate philosophical history in the spirit of philosophia perennis. HPQ approaches the history of philosophy and philosophy itself as parts of a whole, seeing the work of past philosophers not only as objects of historical inquiry but also ways to address current problems of philosophy. Hence, HPQ finds no impassible boundary between philosophy and its history, regarding historical studies as a way of dealing with problems of continuing interest and importance. Each issue is devoted entirely to articles: no book reviews and no discussion notes, though general surveys on particular topics may be published.

Subscriptions should be sent to: Journals Department, University of Illinois Press, 1325 S. Oak St., Champaign, IL 61820; phone: 866-244-0626 (toll free), or 217-244-0626; fax: 217-244-8082; e-mail: journals@uillinois.edu; www.press.uillinois.edu. Rates are $60 for individuals or $346 (print only or electronic only) or $389 (print and electronic) for institutions. All other correspondence, or submissions for possible publication, should be addressed to:
