Dialogue: A Journal of Mormon Thought is an independent quarterly established to express Mormon culture and to examine the relevance of religion to secular life.

Edited by:
Taylor Petrey

It is published by the Dialogue Foundation and edited by Latter-day Saints who wish to bring their faith into dialogue with the larger stream of world religious thought and with human experience as a whole and to foster artistic and scholarly achievement based on their cultural heritage.
Connecticut History Review

A Publication of the Association for the Study of Connecticut History

Connecticut History Review serves many different constituencies: museum and historical society professionals, academic scholars, history buffs, graduate students, and educators.

Each issue of the Connecticut History Review contains original research articles, book reviews, and research notes on the history and culture of Connecticut.

The only academic journal devoted to the history of Connecticut, it publishes twice annually, in the spring and fall.

The Journal of the Abraham Lincoln Association (JALA) is the only journal devoted exclusively to Lincoln scholarship. JALA is issued biannually in spring and fall.

In addition to selected scholarly articles—on Lincoln in the popular media, for example, or British reactions to the War—the journal also features photographs and newly discovered Lincoln letters and other unpublished primary source documents.

The Mormon Studies Review (Review) tracks the vibrant, varied, and international academic engagement with Mormon institutions, lives, ideas, texts, and stories.

Edited by:
Quincy D. Newell
Benjamin E. Park

It chronicles and assesses the developing field of Mormon studies with review essays, book reviews, and roundtable discussions related to the academic study of Mormonism.

The Review offers scholars and interested non-specialists a one-stop source for discussions of current scholarship on Mormonism.
